One other thing to consider with respect to the rough industrial is it will be much harder for staff, not you, to "cocoon" in their offices

I think the rough industrial vibe will be closer to $250,000 than the $77/SF buildout from Robin's contact.

The guess that Jade's architect threw out was $250k. I'm wondering how much can be cut out if we decide to go with the rough, industrial vibe.
